

Milestones in Permanent Land Protection, VA, WV

Potomac Conservancy and its partners reached two milestones in 2007- closing its 50th easement, and protecting its 10,000th acre. Potomac Conservancy will continue to work with partners in Virginia in West Virginia to permanently protect working farmland, riverbanks, wetlands, and forestland.

For more information of conservation easements and best management practices, visit:
<http://www.potomac.org/site/land-protection/>