

Plant-A- Seed program

This outdoor education program allows urban and at-risk middle school students from the Harrisonburg City Public School system visit George Washington and Jefferson National Forests and other local parks to explore and learn about water quality, macro-invertebrates, soils, and riparian buffers.

To learn more, visit the Plant-A-Seed website:
<http://www.potomac.org/plantaseed/resources.htm>